Bill 201

(Private)

AN ACT RESPECTING VILLE DE WESTMOUNT

AS Ville de Westmount has had an advisory committee on matters of urban planning and architecture since at least 1916;

AS the built environment of Ville de Westmount has great heritage value;

AS it is in the interest of Ville de Westmount that it be granted a power to appoint members to its planning advisory committee regardless of their place of residence to ensure that it has appropriate access to the best urban planning, architectural and heritage resources;

AS it is in the interest of Ville de Westmount that it be possible to appoint the committee members for a renewable term of office of up to four years;

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Despite section 146 of the Act respecting land use planning and development (chapter A-19.1), the planning advisory committee of Ville de Westmount may include, in addition to members who are resident in the territory of the city, a single member who is not resident there.

The non-resident committee member must have special qualifications in architecture or urban planning or have heritage expertise.

The term of office of the committee members may not exceed four years and may be renewed.

2. This Act comes into force on 5 December 2014.
