EXPLANATORY NOTES

The purpose of this Act is to revise various aspects of the Youth Protection Act.

First, the Act proposes that the rules applicable to children be harmonized regardless of which alternative living environment they are entrusted to under the Youth Protection Act. It also aims to harmonize the concept of foster family for the purposes of that Act, in particular by introducing the concept of “kinship foster family”.

Rules are also introduced to foster the involvement of Native communities and the preservation of the cultural identity of Native children.

Certain rules relating to placement of a child in a rehabilitation centre are updated, including through the introduction of a transition period applicable in the case of a child placed in an intensive supervision unit and aimed at returning the child to an open rehabilitation unit, and through the introduction of a measure aimed at preventing the child from leaving the rehabilitation centre if the child is at risk of running away and thus placing himself in danger.

Measures are also introduced to foster existing agreements or make new agreements involving parents and their child, including the possibility of extending and modifying a provisional agreement or reaching an agreement with the parents and child on a short-term intervention.

The Act also specifies that situations involving sexual exploitation of children are included in the sexual abuse-related grounds for considering their security or development to be in danger.

The protection granted to children who are victims of educational neglect, including in connection with compulsory school attendance, is broadened. Various measures are proposed in that respect, and the ground of educational neglect as well as the responsibilities and obligations of the director of youth protection and the latter’s partners are clarified.

Rules are introduced regarding the emancipation, by the Court of Québec, of children who are subject to the Youth Protection Act. In addition, certain rules applicable when children are entrusted to an alternative living environment and other rules pertaining to the disclosure of confidential information and the conservation of the information in children's records are revised.

In matters involving court interventions, the Act revises a number of rules concerning, among other things, immediate protective measures, the use of technological means, the service and notification of applications, provisional measures under which children are entrusted to an alternative living environment, the supplementary application of the procedure established by the Code of Civil Procedure, and the procedure for appeals to the Superior Court and the Court of Appeal.

The Code of Penal Procedure is also amended to modify the special regime applicable to persons 18 years of age or over for an offence they committed before attaining full age.

Bill 99

AN ACT TO AMEND THE YOUTH PROTECTION ACT AND OTHER PROVISIONS

YOUTH PROTECTION ACT

1. Section 1 of the Youth Protection Act (chapter P-34.1) is amended

(1) by inserting the following subparagraphs after subparagraph c of the first paragraph:

“(c.1) “holiday” means a holiday within the meaning of section 61 of the Interpretation Act (chapter I-16), as well as 26 December and 2 January;

“(c.2) “alternative living environment” means an environment to which a child is entrusted under this Act, other than that of either of the child’s parents;”;

(2) by inserting “any Native organization,” after “of children,” in subparagraph d of the first paragraph;

(3) by inserting “, including “kinship foster family”,” after ““foster family”” in the second paragraph;

(4) by adding the following paragraph at the end:

“In addition, in this Act, whenever it is provided that a child may be entrusted to a foster family, the child, if a Native, may also be entrusted to one or more persons whose activities are under the responsibility of a Native community or group of such communities with which an institution operating a child and youth protection centre has entered into an agreement under section 37.6 concerning such activities or with which the Government has entered into an agreement under section 37.5 that includes such activities. Those persons are then considered to be foster families for the purposes of this Act.”

2. Section 3 of the Act is amended by adding the following sentence at the end of the second paragraph: “In the case of a Native child, the preservation of the child’s cultural identity must also be taken into account.”

3. Section 4 of the Act is amended by adding the following paragraph at the end:

“A decision made under the second or third paragraph regarding a Native child must aim at entrusting the child to an alternative living environment capable of preserving his cultural identity, by giving preference to a member of his extended family or his community or nation.”

4. Section 7 of the Act is amended

(1) by replacing “from one foster family or facility maintained by an institution operating a rehabilitation centre to another foster family or facility maintained by another institution operating a rehabilitation centre” in the first paragraph by “from one alternative living environment to another”;

(2) by adding the following paragraph at the end:

“The alternative living environment to which the child is entrusted must also be consulted unless doing so would be contrary to the interest of the child.”

5. Section 9 of the Act is replaced by the following section:

“9. Any child entrusted to an alternative living environment has the right to communicate in all confidentiality with his advocate, the director who has taken charge of his situation, the Commission, and the clerks of the tribunal.

The child may also communicate in all confidentiality with his parents, brothers, sisters and any other person, unless the tribunal decides otherwise. However, in the case of a child entrusted to an institution operating a rehabilitation centre or a hospital centre, the executive director of that institution or the person the executive director authorizes in writing may prevent the child from communicating with a person other than his parents, brothers and sisters if the executive director considers it to be in the interest of the child. The decision of the executive director must give reasons, be in writing and be given to the child and, as far as possible, to the child’s parents.

The child or his parents may refer any such decision of the executive director to the tribunal. Such an application is heard and decided by preference.

The tribunal shall confirm or quash the decision of the executive director. It may, in addition, order him to take certain measures relating to the right of the child to communicate in the future with the person who is the subject of the decision or with any other person.”

6. Section 10 of the Act is amended by replacing the last paragraph by the following paragraph:

“The measures provided for in section 118.1 of the Act respecting health services and social services (chapter S-4.2), in particular isolation, may never be used as disciplinary measures. The same applies to placement in an intensive supervision unit, as provided for in section 11.1.1 of this Act, and to a measure intended to prevent a child from leaving the facilities maintained by an institution operating a rehabilitation centre, as provided for in section 11.1.2 of this Act.”

7. Section 11.1.1 of the Act is amended by replacing the second, third and fourth paragraphs by the following paragraphs:

“Placement in such a unit must be aimed at ensuring the child’s safety, putting an end to the situation placing the child or others in danger and preventing the recurrence of such a situation in the short term.

Placement of the child in an intensive supervision unit may occur only following a decision by the executive director of the institution or the person the executive director authorizes in writing and must comply with the conditions prescribed by regulation. A detailed report on the placement, mentioning the grounds for it and its duration, must be entered in the child’s record. The information contained in the regulation must be given and explained to both the child, if he is able to understand it, and the child’s parents. The child or the parents may refer the executive director’s decision to the tribunal. Such an application is heard and decided by preference.

Where the child’s situation is being reassessed, the executive director or the person the executive director authorizes in writing may, during a transition period and if the child’s situation requires it, allow the child to engage in activities outside the intensive supervision unit, in accordance with the conditions prescribed by regulation, with a view to returning the child to an open rehabilitation unit.

Placement in an intensive supervision unit must end as soon as the serious risk of danger no longer exists and the situation warranting the measure is not likely to recur in the short term. In the case of an immediate protective measure, the placement may not exceed the period prescribed in section 46.”

8. The Act is amended by inserting the following section after section 11.1.1:

“11.1.2. If the child is placed in an open rehabilitation unit in an institution operating a rehabilitation centre following an immediate protection measure or an order issued by the tribunal under this Act, and there is reasonable cause to believe that the child is at risk of running away and thus placing himself or others in danger, without the child’s situation warranting placement in an intensive supervision unit, the child may be the subject of a measure intended to prevent him from leaving the facilities maintained by the institution.

The measure intended to prevent the child from leaving the facilities maintained by the institution must be aimed at ensuring the safety of the child, putting an end to the situation placing the child or others in danger, and preventing the recurrence of such a situation in the short term. It must also be aimed at helping maintain the child in the open rehabilitation unit in which he has been placed.

Such a measure may be used only following a decision by the executive director of the institution or the person the executive director authorizes in writing and must comply with the conditions prescribed by regulation. A detailed report on the measure, mentioning the grounds for it and its duration, must be entered in the child's record. The information contained in the regulation must be given and explained to both the child, if he is able to understand it, and the child's parents. The child or the parents may refer the executive director's decision to the tribunal. Such an application is heard and decided by preference.

The measure must end as soon as the risk of the child running away and thus placing himself in danger no longer exists and the situation warranting the measure is not likely to recur in the short term. It must also end if the child's situation, after reassessment, warrants placement in an intensive supervision unit. In the case of an immediate protective measure, the placement may not exceed the period prescribed in section 46."

9. Section 11.2.1 of the Act is amended by inserting "or so authorizes on the conditions it determines" after "unless the tribunal so orders" in the first paragraph.

10. Section 11.3 of the Act is amended by replacing "who has committed an offence against an Act or a regulation in force in Québec" by "and, with the necessary modifications, any person 18 years of age or over who are placed in an institution operating a rehabilitation centre and who have committed an offence against an Act or a regulation in force in Québec or who are awaiting a decision of the tribunal regarding the commission of such an offence".

11. Section 23 of the Act is amended by inserting "even if at the time of the investigation the intervention under this Act has ended," after "bodies," in paragraph b.

12. Section 26 of the Act is amended by adding the following sentence at the end of the first paragraph: "Where the member is exercising the responsibility provided for in paragraph b of section 23, the member may also consult the record of a child regarding whom an intervention has ended, including because the child has reached 18 years of age."

13. Section 27 of the Act is amended by replacing “must be removed from the file not later than on the child’s reaching 18 years of age” by “must be removed from the file not later than on the child’s reaching 18 years of age. However, if a file is opened for the purposes of an investigation that is continued or conducted after the child has reached that age, the information must be removed not later than 30 days after the end of the investigation”.

14. Section 32 of the Act is amended

(1) by striking out subparagraph c of the second paragraph;

(2) by replacing the last paragraph by the following paragraph:

“Where the decision on the directing of the child involves the application of an agreement on a short-term intervention or on voluntary measures, the director may decide personally to reach an agreement on such measures with only one of the parents to the extent that the conditions set out in the second paragraph of section 52.1 are met.”

15. Section 37.4 of the Act is replaced by the following sections:

“37.4. If the director or the tribunal decides that the security or development of the child is in danger, the director must keep the information in the child’s record for the entire duration of the intervention and until he has reached 19 years of age.

If the director or the tribunal decides that the security or development of the child is no longer in danger, the information in the child’s record must be kept by the director for five years after that decision or until the child reaches 19 years of age, whichever is shorter.

“37.4.1. When the tribunal appoints a tutor to the child and the director puts an end to his intervention in respect of that child under section 70.2, the director must keep the information in the child’s record until the child has reached 19 years of age.

However, if a parent is reinstated as tutor, the director must keep the information for five years after that decision or until the child reaches 19 years of age, whichever is shorter.

“37.4.2. From the time the child reaches 18 years of age and subject to the first paragraph of section 37.4.3, only the child may have access to the information kept in his record in accordance with the Act respecting health services and social services (chapter S-4.2).

“37.4.3. The tribunal may, for exceptional reasons, and for the period and on the conditions it determines, extend the retention period for the information in the child’s record.

It may also, for the period and on the conditions it determines, extend the retention period for the information in the record of a child referred to in section 37.4 to allow that child exclusive access to the information in his record in accordance with the Act respecting health services and social services (chapter S-4.2).”

16. The Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 37.5:

“37.6. In order to facilitate preservation of the cultural identity of Native children and the involvement of Native communities in the decision-making and choice of measures concerning these children, an institution operating a child and youth protection centre may enter into an agreement with a Native community represented by its band council or by the northern village council or with a group of communities so represented which stipulates that such a community or such a group is to recruit and evaluate, in keeping with the general criteria determined by the Minister, persons able to take in one or more children who are members of the community and who are entrusted to them under this Act.

Such an agreement may also stipulate any other responsibility of the community or group of communities in relation to these persons’ activities, in accordance with ministerial policy directions.

“37.7. An institution operating a child and youth protection centre may, for the same purposes as those mentioned in section 37.6, enter into an agreement with a Native community represented by its band council or by the northern village council or with a group of communities so represented that specifies the terms applicable to the authorizations granted by the director for the exercise of one or more of the exclusive responsibilities of the director provided for in the following paragraph.

The director may, within the framework of such an agreement, authorize a person who is an employee of the Native community or the group of communities, in writing and to the extent the director specifies,

(1) to carry out the assessment of a child’s situation and living conditions as provided for in subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 32, without, however, allowing that person to decide whether the security or development of the child is in danger; and

(2) to exercise, under the director’s authority as regards clinical matters or under the authority of the person the director authorizes in writing, one or more of the responsibilities provided for in subparagraphs b to e and h.1 of the first paragraph of section 32.

Section 35 and any other section that applies to a person acting under section 32 apply to a person authorized to exercise a responsibility under this section. The director may, at any time, terminate an authorization.”

17. The Act is amended by inserting the following division after Division III of Chapter III:

“DIVISION IV

“EDUCATION NETWORK ORGANIZATIONS

“37.8. Every institution operating a child and youth protection centre must enter into an agreement with a school board in the region served by the centre concerning the services to be provided to a child and his parents by the health and social services network and the education network if the child is the subject of a report for a situation of educational neglect in connection with the schooling the child receives or with the child’s compliance with compulsory school attendance under subparagraph iii of subparagraph 1 of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 38.

The agreement must establish a method of cooperation to ensure the child’s situation is monitored.

The agreement must cover, among other aspects, the continuity and complementarity of the services provided and the actions to be taken jointly. The parties are required to share the information necessary for the implementation of the agreement.”

18. Section 38 of the Act is amended

(1) by replacing “provide the child with schooling” at the end of subparagraph iii of subparagraph 1 of subparagraph b of the second paragraph by “ensure that the child receives a proper education and, if applicable, that he attends school as required under the Education Act (chapter I-13.3) or any other applicable legislation”;

(2) by replacing subparagraph d of the second paragraph by the following subparagraph:

“(d) “sexual abuse” refers to

(1) a situation in which the child is subjected to gestures of a sexual nature by the child’s parents or another person, with or without physical contact, including any form of sexual exploitation, and the child’s parents fail to take the necessary steps to put an end to the situation; or

(2) a situation in which the child runs a serious risk of being subjected to gestures of a sexual nature by the child’s parents or another person, with or without physical contact, including a serious risk of sexual exploitation, and the child’s parents fail to take the necessary steps to put an end to the situation;”.

19. Section 38.1 of the Act is amended by striking out paragraph b.

20. The Act is amended by inserting the following section after section 38.2:

“38.2.1. For the purposes of section 38.2, any decision relating to a report for a situation of educational neglect in connection with the schooling a child receives or with the child’s compliance with compulsory school attendance must, in particular, take into consideration the following factors:

(a) the consequences for the child of not attending school or of being absent from school, in particular with regard to his social integration ability;

(b) the child’s level of development in relation to his age and personal characteristics;

(c) the measures taken by the parents to ensure the child receives proper schooling, including academic supervision of the child and cooperation with local resources, including school resources; and

(d) the local resources’ ability to support the parents in carrying out their responsibilities and to help the child make progress in his learning.

If the nature of the report warrants it, the assessment of the child’s ability to re-enter the school system, the evaluation of the child’s academic development and the measures taken by the parents with regard to the conditions in which the child’s learning is to occur in a home-schooling context must also be taken into consideration. Those factors must be considered in the manner stipulated in the agreement described in section 37.8.”

21. Section 39 of the Act is amended by replacing the last paragraph by the following paragraphs:

“Every person referred to in this section may, after reporting a child’s situation to the director, communicate to the director any relevant information about the situation that is related to the report, with a view to ensuring the child’s protection.

The first, second and fourth paragraphs apply even to persons who are bound by professional secrecy, except to advocates or notaries who, in the practice of their profession, receive information concerning a situation described in section 38 or 38.1.”

22. Section 45 of the Act is amended by adding the following paragraph at the end:

“In a case where the situation of a group of five or more children is reported for educational neglect in connection with the schooling they receive or with their compliance with compulsory school attendance, the director must, during his analysis, make an additional verification in the children’s family environment or any other environment the children frequent, unless the director has all the information necessary to accept the reports for evaluation.”

23. Section 47 of the Act is amended by replacing the first paragraph by the following paragraphs:

“If the director proposes to extend the immediate protective measures and a child 14 years of age or over or the child’s parents object, or if an order of the tribunal on the applicable measures is enforceable, the director must refer the matter to the tribunal, which, if it considers it necessary, orders the extension of the immediate protective measures for not more than five working days. If there is no such objection or no such order, the director may also refer the matter to the tribunal, which orders such an extension if it considers it necessary.

The clerk may exercise the power conferred on the tribunal in the first paragraph if the judge is absent or unable to act and if a delay could cause serious harm to the child.”

24. Section 47.1 of the Act is replaced by the following section:

“47.1. If a child 14 years of age or over and the child’s parents do not object to the extension of the immediate protective measures, the director may propose a provisional agreement until he decides whether the security or development of the child is in danger and, if applicable, reaches an agreement with them on a short-term intervention or on voluntary measures, or until he refers the matter to the tribunal.

The provisional agreement may cover a period of not more than 30 days, including the 10-day period provided for in section 52. However, such an agreement may be extended for a maximum period of 30 days if the situation so requires, in which case the 10-day period provided for in section 52 only applies to the extension of the agreement.

Changes may be made to the terms of such an agreement at any time with the parties’ consent.”

25. The Act is amended by inserting the following before section 49:

“§1.—Director’s decision on whether the security or development of a child is in danger”.

26. Section 51 of the Act is amended by replacing “the application of voluntary measures or” in the first paragraph by “an agreement on a short-term intervention or on voluntary measures, or”.

27. The Act is amended by inserting the following after section 51:

“§2.—Agreement on a short-term intervention

“51.1. Where the director considers that he is able, in the short term, to put an end to an intervention with a child whose situation he has taken charge of, the director may propose an agreement on a short-term intervention to the parents and child.

Such an agreement must include the measures most conducive to putting an end to the situation endangering the security or development of the child and preventing its recurrence.

“51.2. The director may propose that the agreement on a short-term intervention include the measures applicable under section 54, except those entrusting a child to an alternative living environment.

“51.3. An agreement on a short-term intervention may be for a maximum period of 60 days after the director’s decision to the effect that the security or development of the child is in danger.

It must be recorded in writing and may not be renewed.

“51.4. When proposing an agreement on a short-term intervention to the parents and child, the director must inform them that parents and a child 14 years of age or over have the right to refuse such an agreement. However, he must encourage a child under 14 years of age to adhere to the agreement if the child’s parents accept it.

“51.5. If one of the parents or the child 14 years of age or over, parties to the agreement on a short-term intervention, withdraws from the agreement or the agreement ends before its expiry and if, in either case, the security or development of the child remains in danger, the director must propose an agreement on voluntary measures to the parents and child or refer the child’s situation to the tribunal.

“51.6. If the security or development of the child is no longer in danger at the expiry of an agreement on a short-term intervention, the director shall put an end to his intervention. Otherwise, he shall propose an agreement on voluntary measures to the parents and child or refer the child’s situation to the tribunal.

“51.7. Before reaching an agreement on a short-term intervention with the parents and child, the director must inform them of his obligations in the event that they withdraw from the agreement or that the agreement ends otherwise, regardless of when, and the security or development of the child remains in danger.

Before putting an end to the intervention or deciding on a new direction for the child in accordance with sections 51.5 and 51.6, the director must meet with the parents and child.

“51.8. Sections 52.1 and 55 and the first paragraph of section 57.2.1 apply, with the necessary modifications, to short-term interventions.

“§3.—Agreement on voluntary measures”.

28. Section 52 of the Act is amended by replacing the first paragraph by the following paragraph:

“When proposing an agreement on voluntary measures to the parents and child, the director must, before reaching an agreement with them, inform them that parents and a child 14 years of age or over have the right to refuse such an agreement. However, he must encourage a child under 14 years of age to adhere to the agreement if the child’s parents accept it.”

29. Section 53 of the Act is amended by replacing “foster care measure referred to in subparagraph” in the second paragraph by “measure entrusting the child under subparagraph e, e.1 or”.

30. Section 53.0.1 of the Act is replaced by the following section:

“53.0.1. If, during the maximum period provided for in section 53, one or more agreements contain a measure entrusting the child to an alternative living environment referred to in subparagraph e, e.1 or j of the first paragraph of section 54, the total period for which the child is so entrusted may not exceed, depending on the child’s age at the time the first agreement containing such a measure is entered into,

- (a) 12 months if the child is under two years of age;
- (b) 18 months if the child is two to five years of age; or
- (c) 24 months if the child is six years of age or over.

If the security or development of the child is still in danger and it is necessary for him to remain entrusted to such an alternative living environment at the expiry of the period that applies under the first paragraph, the director shall refer the matter to the tribunal.”

31. Section 54 of the Act is amended by inserting the following subparagraph after subparagraph e of the first paragraph:

“(e.1) that the parents entrust the child to a kinship foster family chosen by the institution operating the child and youth protection centre;”.

32. The Act is amended by inserting the following after section 56:

“DIVISION III.1

“REVIEW OF THE CHILD’S SITUATION”.

33. Section 57 of the Act is amended by inserting “, except the situation of a child taken in charge under an agreement on a short-term intervention” after “whose situation he has taken in charge”.

34. Section 57.2 of the Act is amended by replacing “of foster care” in subparagraph d of the first paragraph by “entrusting the child to an alternative living environment”.

35. The heading of Division IV before section 62 of the Act is replaced by the following heading:

“CHILD ENTRUSTED TO AN ALTERNATIVE LIVING ENVIRONMENT BY THE TRIBUNAL”.

36. Sections 62 to 64 of the Act are replaced by the following sections:

“62. When the tribunal orders that a child be entrusted to an institution operating a rehabilitation centre or hospital centre or to a foster family, it shall require the director to designate the institution or an institution operating a child and youth protection centre that has recourse to foster families, that the child may be entrusted to.

However, when making an order under the third paragraph of section 91.1, the tribunal may designate, by name, the foster family chosen by the institution operating a child and youth protection centre.

Furthermore, when it orders that the child be entrusted to a kinship foster family chosen by the institution operating a child and youth protection centre, the tribunal shall designate the foster family by name.

The director shall see to it that the conditions in which the child is placed are adequate.

Every institution operating a rehabilitation centre or a hospital centre and designated by the director in accordance with this section or subparagraph b of the fourth paragraph of section 46 is bound to admit the child contemplated in the order. Such an order may be executed by any peace officer.

The institution operating a child and youth protection centre must send a copy of the child’s record to the executive director of the designated institution operating a rehabilitation centre.

“62.1. When the tribunal orders that the child be entrusted to an alternative living environment, the director may authorize the child to stay, for periods of not more than 15 days, with his father or mother, with a person who is important to the child, in particular his grandparents or other members of the extended family, with a foster family or within a body, provided those stays are in keeping with the intervention plan and respect the interest of the child.

With a view to preparing the child’s return to his family or social environment, the director or a person authorized by the director under section 32 may authorize the child to stay with his father or mother, with a person who is important to the child, with a foster family or within a body for extended periods during the last 60 days of the order entrusting the child to an alternative living environment.

“63. If a child is placed in an intensive supervision unit in accordance with section 11.1.1, the executive director of the institution that maintains the unit must, without delay, send the Commission a notice giving the child’s name, date of birth and gender, the authorization given by the director for a child under 14 years of age, if applicable, the placement start date and end date and the dates on which the child’s situation is to be reassessed. The executive director must also, without delay, send the Commission the tribunal’s decision or order if the executive director’s decision to place the child in such a unit was referred to the tribunal.

If a child is subject to a measure intended to prevent him from leaving the facilities maintained by the institution, as provided for in section 11.1.2, the same information as that provided for in the first paragraph must also be sent without delay to the Commission by the executive director, with the necessary modifications.

“64. If the placement period for a child entrusted to an institution operating a rehabilitation centre by the tribunal ends during a school year, the institution must allow the child 14 years of age or over to stay there until the end of the school year if he consents to it. If the child is under 14 years of age, the placement shall continue with the consent of the parents and the director.

If the placement period for a child entrusted to another alternative living environment by the tribunal ends during a school year, the alternative living environment may allow the child to stay on the same conditions.

“64.1. An order entrusting a child to an alternative living environment ceases to have effect when the child reaches the age of 18 years.

However, if the child is entrusted to a foster family or an institution operating a rehabilitation centre or a hospital centre, the placement may continue in accordance with the Act respecting health services and social services (chapter S-4.2) or the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (chapter S-5) if the person consents to it.

An institution must allow a person who has reached the age of 18 years to stay there if the person consents to it and if his condition does not allow his return to or reinsertion in his home environment. The placement must be continued until the person's admission to another institution or any of its intermediate resources or to a family-type resource where he will receive the services required by his condition is assured."

37. Section 65 of the Act is replaced by the following section:

"65. The parents of a child entrusted to an alternative living environment are subject to the contribution fixed by regulation made under section 159 of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (chapter S-5) or under section 512 of the Act respecting health services and social services (chapter S-4.2), except in the following cases:

(1) the child is entrusted to an institution operating a hospital centre or a local community service centre or to a body;

(2) by replacing “celle” in the French text by “celui”.

42. Section 72.6 of the Act is replaced by the following section:

“72.6. Despite section 72.5, confidential information may, without the consent of the person to whom it relates or an order of the tribunal, be disclosed to any person, body or institution having responsibilities under this Act and to every court of justice called upon, in accordance with this Act, to make decisions respecting a child, where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of this Act. The same applies to a person, body or institution called on to cooperate with the director, if the latter considers the disclosure necessary to ensure the child’s protection in accordance with this Act.

Despite section 72.5, confidential information may also be disclosed by the director or the Commission, according to their respective powers, without it being necessary to obtain the consent of the person to whom it relates or an order of the tribunal,

(1) to the Commission des normes, de l’équité, de la santé et de la sécurité du travail, where the disclosure is necessary for the application of the Crime Victims Compensation Act (chapter I-6) in respect of a claim relating to a child whose situation has been reported to the director under this Act;

Disclosure of information must take place in a manner that will ensure its confidentiality.”

43. The Act is amended by inserting the following section after section 72.6:

“72.6.0.1. Despite section 72.5, as soon as a Native child must be removed from his family environment to be entrusted to an alternative living environment, the director must inform the person responsible for youth protection services in the community of the child’s situation. In the absence of such a person, the director shall inform the person who assumes a role in matters of child and family services within the community. The director shall then solicit the cooperation of the person informed of the child’s situation in order to foster the preservation of the child’s cultural identity and, as far as possible, ensure that the child is entrusted to a member of his extended family or his community or nation.

Such information may be disclosed without it being necessary to obtain the consent of the person or persons concerned or an order of the tribunal. However, the director must inform the parents and the child if he is 14 years of age or over of such a disclosure.”

44. Section 72.7 of the Act is amended by replacing the first paragraph by the following paragraphs:

The disclosure must be limited to the information required to facilitate their intervention with regard to the reported situation. If the director or Commission considers it appropriate, he or it may also, for the same purpose, disclose such information to the Minister of Families or an institution or body exercising a responsibility in respect of the child concerned.

The director or the Commission may also disclose confidential information related to the situation that gave rise to the disclosure to the Director of Criminal and Penal Prosecutions, the Minister of Families or such an institution or body without the consent of the person to whom it relates or an order of the tribunal if such information is necessary for the exercise of their duties and responsibilities. However, in all proceedings, witnesses are examined at the hearing. The tribunal may, nevertheless, after consulting the parties, allow a witness to be examined at a distance if the tribunal is of the opinion, after taking into account such factors as the issues raised in the application, the nature and length of the testimony, the witness’s personal situation and ability to travel, and the costs that his presence would entail, that it is expedient to do so.

The technological means used to examine a witness at a distance must allow the witness to be identified, heard and seen live. If this is not possible, the tribunal may, after consulting the parties, allow a witness to be examined at a distance if the tribunal is of the opinion that it is necessary to do so due to the urgency of the situation or for exceptional reasons. In such a case, the technological means used must allow the witness to be identified and heard live.

This section also applies to clerks and justices of the peace in the exercise of their jurisdiction.”

51. Section 74.2 of the Act is amended

(1) be served personally by a bailiff on the parents, the child if he is 14 years of age or over, and any person who has been granted the status of party by the tribunal, or be notified to those persons by the director personally or by registered mail provided receipt of the document is attested to by the addressee; and

(2) be notified in accordance with the rules of the Code of Civil Procedure (chapter C-25.01) to the advocates of the parties mentioned in subparagraph 1, the director, the Commission if the application raises an encroachment of rights, or the Public Curator in tutorship or emancipation matters.

However, an application made under the third or fourth paragraph of section 81 must, within the same time and on the same conditions, be notified only to the director. It must also be filed at the office of the tribunal at least 10 days before the hearing. On receiving the application, the clerk shall send by registered mail to the parents and to the child if he is 14 years of age or over, at their last address entered in the record, a notice informing them of the filing of the application.

Any other written proceeding, document or notice must be notified using a method provided for in the Code of Civil Procedure that protects its confidentiality.

The tribunal may

(1) authorize a different method of service or notification if required in the circumstances;

(2) extend or reduce the service or notification time limit for exceptional reasons or in urgent cases; and

(3) dispense with service or notification for exceptional reasons, in urgent cases or if all the parties are present before the tribunal and waive it.

Applications addressed to the tribunal under the fourth paragraph must be presented in the district established under section 73.

The clerk may exercise the powers conferred on the tribunal in subparagraphs 1 and 2 of the fourth paragraph.”

53. The Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 76:

“76.0.1. To ensure the orderly progress of a proceeding, the tribunal may, in accordance with the directives issued by the chief judge, on his own initiative or on request, given the nature, character or complexity of the case, order that it be examined as soon as the application is filed to determine whether the tribunal considers it necessary to establish a case protocol in cooperation with the parties or hold a management conference. The tribunal may also determine with the parties the time limits and terms applicable to them.

“76.0.2. The parties are required to cooperate to establish the case protocol which, if considered necessary, sets out their agreements and undertakings and the issues in dispute, describes the steps to be taken to ensure the orderly progress of the proceeding, includes an assessment of the time completing these steps could require and sets the deadlines to be met.

The case protocol covers such aspects as

- (1) preliminary exceptions and provisional measures;
- (2) the advisability of holding a settlement conference or discussions with a view to submitting a draft agreement to the tribunal under section 76.3;
- (3) the advisability of seeking one or more expert opinions and the nature of the opinion or opinions to be sought;
- (4) the procedure and time limit for pre-hearing discovery and disclosure; and
- (5) foreseeable incidental applications.

The tribunal may, in cooperation with the parties, amend the protocol to, among other reasons, include items that could not be determined.

The protocol is binding on the parties, who are each required to comply with it.

“76.0.3. When convening a case management conference, the tribunal acquaints itself with the issues of fact or law in dispute, discusses the case protocol, if applicable, with the parties and takes the appropriate case management measures. If it considers it useful, the tribunal may require undertakings from the parties as to the further conduct of the proceeding, or subject the proceeding to certain conditions.

The tribunal may also, even if a party is absent, hear the party that is present if the latter is ready to proceed on case management measures.

“76.0.4. At the case management conference, the tribunal may decide to hold a hearing of the parties, on the preliminary exceptions, or to hear the parties on the grounds of their defence, which are recorded in the minutes of the hearing. The tribunal may try the case immediately if the parties are ready to proceed, or postpone the hearing to another date set by the tribunal. It may also examine a draft agreement submitted to it under section 76.3.

Preliminary exceptions are presented and contested orally, but the tribunal may authorize the parties to submit the relevant evidence.

“76.0.5. For case management purposes, at any stage of a proceeding, the tribunal may decide, on its own initiative or on request, to

(1) take measures to simplify or expedite the proceeding and shorten the hearing by ruling, among other things, on the advisability of ordering the consolidation or separation of proceedings, of better defining the issues in dispute, of amending the pleadings, of limiting the length of the hearing, of admitting facts or documents, of authorizing affidavits in lieu of testimony or of determining the procedure and time limit for the disclosure of exhibits and other evidence between the parties, or by convening the parties to a case management conference or a settlement conference, or encouraging them to hold discussions with a view to submitting a draft agreement to the tribunal under section 76.3;

(2) assess the purpose and usefulness of seeking expert opinion, determine the mechanics of that process and set a time limit for submission of the expert report; and

(3) rule on any special requests made by the parties, modify the case protocol or order provisional measures as it considers appropriate.

“76.0.6. The tribunal’s case management decisions are recorded in the minutes of the hearing and are considered to be part of the case protocol. Unless revised by the tribunal, they govern the conduct of the proceeding together with the case protocol.”

54. Section 76.1 of the Act is amended by inserting the following paragraphs after the first paragraph:

Any person who wishes to intervene at the hearing in the interest of the child may, on an application, testify before the tribunal and make representations if the person has information likely to enlighten the tribunal, and may, for that purpose, be assisted by an advocate. The tribunal may, for exceptional reasons, in urgent cases or if the parties present at the hearing consent to it, authorize the person to make the application orally.

For the requirements of the hearing, the tribunal may grant a person the status of party to the hearing if the tribunal considers it advisable to do so in the interest of the child. The status of party remains valid until withdrawn by a decision or order of the tribunal.

The director must, on request, inform a person who wishes to present an application under the third or fourth paragraph of the date, time and place of the hearing.”
